

Seasons

The leaves were falling as Benito Bear enjoyed his last romp before crawling into his cubby-hole. In what season do the leaves fall?

If you guessed autumn you're correct!

Below are the four seasons that happen every year. Around each season write words and sentences about it. What's the weather like? What's fun to do in each season? What does it look like outside? What are the animals, like Benito, doing in each season?
