

Cures?

When Columbia travels to the city he hears some crazy cures for his sneezes. Among others he's told to always look down, to paint his face blue and to hum a small song.

Make up some of your own crazy cures for Columbia -

Some people try to cure the hiccups by scaring the sufferer or getting them to drink a cup of water. Make up some crazy hiccup cures.

Think of crazy cures for any other common ailments people may suffer. Don't only write the cures; give step by step instructions on what the sufferer must do. Put your advice into a book titled Dr _____ (your name)'s Cures for Common Ailments.

