

Feelings

David feels strong and brave in his lion suit. However when he takes it off and goes to school he doesn't feel brave. He feels bad about having trouble reading.

What would you say to David to make him feel better about reading?

Write some tips for David to improve his reading like -

1. Sound out the letters.
2. Practice every night.
- 3.
- 4.

Is there anything you would like to improve at? If yes, what is it?

Write some tips you can follow to help yourself improve. Remember there's nothing wrong with not being the best at something. No one is great at everything!
