A Great Grey Elephant

In A Great Grey Elephant, Janeen Brian compares a concrete truck to an elephant. Compare the following machines to animals:

A jack-hammer is like a _____ because _____

A crane is like a _____ because _____

A race car is like a _____ because _____

A steam roller is like a _____ because _____

Make up three of your own comparisons:

Draw an illustration, like the one where the cement truck looks like an elephant on pg 16, about one of your comparisons.
