

Beryl

Imagine you are Beryl, the dressmaker's dummy, in Sol's mum's workroom. Write a story titled 'A Day in the Life of Beryl!' When writing consider these points -

- Does Beryl like being called a dummy?
- How does she view the world?
- What does she think of Sol's mum dressing her in designs and using pins so close to her body?
- What does she think of Sol and his mum?
- What are her dreams and aspirations?
