

Party Invitations

One of the most important things about a party is the invitation. After all it wouldn't be much of a party if no one came! Invitations tell you all the important information such as -

- Whose party it is
- What the theme is (or what you have to wear)
- What time the party starts
- Where it's being held
- What time the party finishes

In the box below design your own party invitation. Make it colourful and exciting!
