

Relationship Timeline

Julia and Robert's relationship is not good at the beginning of Cross Currents. It develops throughout the text as the two get to know each other and are forced through circumstances to work together. By the end of the text they seem to be good friends. Create a timeline showing the development of Julia and Robert's relationship throughout the text. Use specific examples and quotes from the text to support your judgements.