

Signal For Help

On page 132/133 of Cross Currents Julia and Robert try to arrange sheep bones to form a cross to signal for help from anyone flying overhead. Do you think a cross would be the most prominent shape to spot from the air? Cut out the shapes below. Using the bottom half of this paper arrange the shapes into a design you think would most stand out to someone in an aircraft.

